

JUDAIC STUDIES TEACHER

The Adelson Educational Campus (AEC) is seeking a dynamic and passionate Judaic Studies educator. Teachers at AEC are responsible for planning instructional activities that meet the needs, interests, and abilities of students. They strive to create a classroom environment that is conducive to learning by employing creative and effective instructional techniques. AEC teachers are committed to providing outstanding educational experiences and aim to inspire each student's passion for learning.

In this role:

- You will plan, build, deliver, student-centered classroom lessons within the context of our school's Judaic Studies and/or Hebrew curricula.
- You will integrate the use of technology to provide a variety of educational activities.
- You will collaborate with partner teachers and administrators to advance the mission of the school.
- You will cultivate warm, authentic, positive relationships with current and prospective students and parents.

You need to be:

- Excited about and experienced with education in the areas of Jewish history, Israel and thematic exploration of Judaic Studies.
- Eager to continue learning, improving, and experimenting on your own and as a part of a collaborative team.
- Organized and detail oriented.
- An extraordinary communicator, both in speech and in writing.
- Upbeat with a genuine interest in the education of adolescents.
- Creative, flexible, professional, and responsible, and have a strong work ethic.