The Adelson Educational Campus is an academically invigorating Preschool-through-Grade-12 independent private school based on Jewish values and identity. Located on a state-of-the-art campus, we carefully nurture the youngest preschoolers and guide them, step-by-step, to become intelligent, compassionate, proactive young adults. Our close-knit community, inspired by expert teachers and administrators, fueled by a forward-looking curriculum, shapes independent thinkers and energetic citizens. Through our abiding belief in the combined power of intellect, kindness, and Judaism, our students see themselves in personal as well as community contexts—fostering genuine creativity, purposeful action, and enduring friendship.
