

Middle and High School English Teacher

The Adelson Educational Campus (AEC) is looking for dedicated educators to join our staff for the 2019-20 school year. With class sizes that average 15 students and salaries/benefits competitive with the school district, AEC is a wonderful environment for teachers looking to join a close-knit educational community. AEC seeks an experienced English teacher to teach middle and high school classes. We are seeking candidates with a bright personality and a passion to teach. Ideal candidates will be able to maintain and promote rigor through differentiation to help students reach their full potential by providing them opportunities that empower and strengthen their academic performance. Experience teaching middle and/or high school students is required, as is a bachelor's degree. Experience with and enthusiasm for Project Based Learning and a collaborative approach to teaching English with Social Studies integration is required.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement a curriculum and lesson plans that will foster knowledge and skills essential to effectively teach students in the grade assigned.
- Create hands-on, inquiry-based, project-based lessons that build excitement for English.
- Evaluate each student's progress in his/her writing and reading knowledge and critical thinking skills.
- Communicate with parents to discuss the individual student's progress.
- Conduct assessment of student learning and use results to plan instructional activities.
- Conduct ongoing assessment of student achievement through formal and informal testing.
- Be a positive role model for students and support the mission of the school.
- Assist in the selection of books and other instructional materials.
- Compile, maintain, and file all reports, records, and other documents required.
- Establish and maintain open communication by conducting conferences with parents, students, principals, and teachers.
- Maintain a professional relationship with colleagues, students, parents, and community members.
- Use effective communication skills to present information accurately and clearly.
- Participate in staff development activities to improve job-related skills.
- Attend and participate in faculty meetings and serve on staff committees as required.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in English (or related)
- Minimum of 2 years of teaching experience at the 6-12 level
- Must be authorized to work in the U.S.
- This position is part-time
- Submit a cover letter with the resume
